

Wangalpong to Mount Tamborine

VOLUME 1
The Moreton Bay Story

Written by KAREN ROSSER

Karen Rosser is a fourth-generation Tamborine Mountain local who grew up on a dairy farm on the South End. Her grandfather, Stan Rosser, was just five years old when his family came to The Mountain in 1896, and her father Allan Rosser, aged 97, still lives there today. Her book is the product of 9 years of meticulous research with a further volume still in progress.

Karen's passion for her subject is clear on every page. Her writing style is unique, and it gives The Mountain a personality. This is the way history should be taught, not with bare dates, places, and names, but as a flowing documentary that takes us on a fascinating journey of discovery and invites us to think about our history in a new and interesting way.

Nola Fulwood, Former Archivist and Manager,
Public Access, (1990-2003) Queensland State Archives

Karen's book is available for purchase from our society, $50.00 (postage TBA). Contact us by email logariverfhs@hotmail.com or by phone 3208 3993

Wonglepong, Wanglepong, Wangalpong, Wangoolpong - so many spellings of this name, to find out why Karen chose Wangalpong, you will have to read the book!

